'79 C.I.S. INDIANS!

EDITORIAL

Recently there has been news in the Ark City Traveler, Tulsa Tribune and various other papers across the country on the proposed closing of Chilocco. The news is not definite but it seems that the school suffers from rumors every year. There is no need to rush out and find another school to transfer until something concrete comes from the BIA in Washington, D.C.

Many students have written to various Senators and Representatives to protest the proposed closing and this editor suggests that if anyone else is interested in writing to get the addresses from staff members here on the campus. It has been stated that our low enrollment over the past few years is attributed in part to the rumors of Chilocco closing every few months.

Various reasons are given for the proposed closing but mainly they site the high cost of operating the school. These figures are tabulated from the total budget divided by the number of students enrolled for the current fiscal year.

We had the Administrative Officer check her figures and found that the cost per pupil runs approximately $13,000 for the 1979-80 school year. This $13,000 figure represents appropriated and non-appropriated funds. If you take only the appropriated funds (which is normal for the education budget) you will find the cost per pupil considerable lower! Think on this?

GETING OUT A PAPER

Getting out a paper is sometimes fun, but it is never a picnic.
If we print jokes, people say we are silly.
If we don't they say we are to serious.
If we clip things from other papers, we are to lazy to write 'em ourselves.
If we don't we are to fond of our own stuff.
If we print contributions, the paper is filled with junk.
If we don't, we don't appreciate true "genius."
Now, like as not, someone will say we swiped this piece from some other paper AND WE DID.

CREATIVE WRITING

The city is a great place
With polution and people,
Everyone with a different face.
I don't know about you,
But I'll stay in Chilocco
And be greeted every morning
By the singing birds and morning dew.

Sneeze on Monday---Danger
Sneeze on Tuesday--Kiss a Stranger
Sneeze on Wednesday--Receive a letter
Sneeze on Thursday--Something better
Sneeze on Friday--For sorrow
Sneeze on Saturday--See your lover tomorrow.
Sneeze on Sunday---Your safety seek or the devil will have you for the rest of the week.

I'm sorry the green leaves aren't green Anymore.
I'm sorry the wind doesn't blow as warm,
I'm sorry the skies are gray now.
I'm sorry your breath makes smokey clouds.
I'm sorry the snow makes your feet cold.
I'm sorry the birds aren't singing all the time.
I'm sorry to have to wear a coat.
I'm sorry the grass isn't soft now.
I'm sorry you don't see the beauty here.

Yor're the best fren, I ever had
When I was with you I was never sad.
When ever I needed you, you were always there
You were always so nice and kind and fair.
Since I'm here and you're there
All I have to do is sit and stare.

The feeling,
It left....
Like the air that wasn't in the wind,
Like the warmth that wasn't in the sun,
Like the cloud that wasn't in the cloud,
But like the tear that was in my eye.
It came and now is gone,
More.than yesterday,
But less than tomorrow,
The feelin' is gone....
